

The Scituate Community of Resources for Special Education (CORSE) sponsored a Tuesday afternoon skate Feb. 7. The Scituate High School girls varsity hockey team's seniors volunteered to skate with the children. There was a great turnout and everyone had fun. The girls hockey team is having their best season since the team was formed a few years back. COURTESY PHOTOS

